VOL. 11 NO. 16 THE WILMINGTON MIRROR, FRIDAY, MAY 14, 1948 3 CENTS

Don't Be Late In '48

By PAUL D. EMMONS

Well, the date of this writing is Sunday evening May 9, 1948, at 9:50 p. m. and the great question is, "Are we going to have a railroad strike?"

By the time you read these lines you will know.

Right now the mediators are working on the disputants, as they have been for some days past, but we have yet to hear anybody stand up in his boots and say, "Thus far and no farther."

But if that strike comes off, the lack of any such occurence is going to be felt by the whole American people.

The best opinion seems to be that there will be no compromise, that the government will seize the roads, and then the men won't strike against the government.

Well, you'll know by the time you read these lines.

And if the men do strike against the government it means that under present leadership in Washington our beloved government has become no more effective than the UN.

Down in that same Washington there is a movement on foot to strengthen The UN by changing the charter so as to eliminate the veto power.

Secretary Marshall is opposed to it. He may be right.

Our own government and the UN have one thing in common. And it's something that's common to all organizations. They're no stronger than their weakest link.

In the case of the White House, the weakest link may be the present incumbent of the White House. In the case of the UN the weakest link is probably the morale of the Western democracies.

And the question is, would the proposed change in the UN charter make that morale weaker?

The crux of the situation lies in the fact that the Western Democracies who were so badly ravaged in the last war they don't want anything to happen that will bring on another war.

Elimination of the veto power might cause Russia to pull out from the UN We should then have two worlds with no common meeting place—unless it's a place to fight in, and again that might be the countries of western Europe. At any rate that's what they're afraid of.

The brutal, unvarnished fact of the matter seems to be that the Western Democracies right now haven't guts enough left to call their souls their own. They're so fed up with war that they would do anything to avoid it, even to groveling before a dictator.

Above all they're afraid of war between Russia and the United States because they feel that again they would be the battle ground, and the principal sufferers from it. So they don't want anything to happen that might bring that down on their necks.

There is a sneaking suspicion that they ight even join forces with Russia to keep it from happening.

That is the underlying viewpoint o fthose who oppose any attempt to change the UN charter at this time. They feel that we have got to build up the economic and morale power of the Western Democracies through the Marshall plan before we can expect them to back us up in anything which would increase the tension between us and Russia.

Winston Churchill is a good morale builder, and he's right on the job. More power to him. His speeches about a united western Europe have been right on the beam. It might be well to keep things as they are for a while and see what he and the Marshall plan can do.

Bruce Tallman Writes In Nat'l. Adult Magazine

Bruce W. Tallman of Old Mystic Ave., Arlington, member of the Crawford Memorial Church, Winchester, is a featured writer in the May issue of the "Adult Student", adult classes in Methodist Sunday schools. Mr. Tallman recently retired from the position of secretary of men's and boys' programs for the Y.M.C.A. in the state of Michigan.

In his article entitled "Retirement Happiness", Mr. Tallman says: "Retirement from activity of life's work is one of the milestones in the span of existence. When one should retire, depends both on the nature of the work one is doing and on the condition (both mental and physical) of the individual. One fact however is common: When time for retirement does come, those who take advantage of it live four years longer, according to life insurance actuaries, than do those who keep on working.

"There are several phases of retirement for which one needs to make adequate and long-term preparation. The financial phase is probably central; how to occupy one's time I safmest as important as financial security; most people upon retiring will be forced to live on greatly reduced incomes. However, not much of a change in the standards of living is necessary if one has been efficient in handling finances. Old age beyond the period of earning is a great time to look forward to if life is well lived. Above all, it is essential that as one comes to the age of lessened physical vigor, he does not allow come to the point of having unpleasant personality traits. Plans for retirement, when made early and carried out carefully, will pay big dividends in happiness and usefulness to others."

The W.R.E. orchestra and chorus staged one of the best banquets in years last Friday night, May 7. Brewing their own product, more than 400 music enthusiasts turned out for the occasion. The chorus did a splendid job in the vocal department and did an encore of "Dry Bones".

The orchestra presented just as an impressive performance as was the concert proved to be most satisfactory. This Friday night the band will present their annual concert and it is expected to be most enjoyable.

Getting on to the sports side of the news, we find our local J. U. baseball took their fourth win of the season at the expense of Concord by a 7-1 score. Long hits by Vic Griffiths, John Marshall, Walt Murphy and Paul Amico, highlighted the game although the drives were caught right against the fence. "Major" Daniels pitched a fine game and hit his first home run of the year.

The track team won their first meet by a lopsided 85-18 margin over Melrose. The trackmen entered in every event except the shot put. "Whip" Saltmarsh was his-tided mile race in three shares. The high jump was won by Henry Eastman and was a nice job.

The St. Marks tennis team sent one of the strongest teams they have had in years to Winchester Wednesday afternoon. They went home a little weaker and with a 5-2 loss. Good playing was shown on every court which made this one of the Red and Black's best matches. This Friday four men from the tennis team will be sent to Exeter Academy to represent the High School in the Scholastic Tournament.

Those going are Sheldon Caldwell, Dick Hills, Roger Swanson and Bob Morris.

The fellows will enter some of their strongest competition and should learn a lot from their trip.

I have talked on Winchester's wins, but now we get to the dark side and report on the girls' softball front. Mr. Hamilton of Medford last Tuesday. Hindered by poor fielding and the pitching not up to par, the girls took an 8-2 defeat. Although a loss was expected, the poor batting by all the players made matters a lot worse. Peggy and Sally Hobson, again let the loss driver for Winchester but it was to no avail.

The varsity baseball squad fell to another loss at the hands of Woburn High by a 6-4 deficit. Getting off to a late start the boys couldn't overcome the advantage. "Jake" Chase did the clouting and Lem Priest, Sam Bellino and Red Reardon did the outstanding hitting.

Local Students Graduate From School Of Art

Three Winchester students, John Roger Gibson of 42 Brooklyn Ave., Claire E. Milner Bowes and Regis, old A. Bowes, both of 72 Bacon St., will be among the graduating class of 54 seniors at commencement exercises of the School of Practical Art, Boston, next Thursday morning at 11 o'clock in the Charter Room of New England Mutual Hall.

Presentation of the diplomas will be made by Alan Winslow Parker, P. S., president of the school, and Harold Clifford Publock, school director. A reception will follow the commencement exercises in the school's galleries at 16 Newbury St., Boston.

M.S.P.C.A.

—Mrs. William Boggs will be hostess to the members at the Winchester Branch, M. S. P. C. A. at the annual meeting of the group on Thursday afternoon, May 20, at 3 o'clock at her home, 17 Bowell Rd. Officers for the coming year will be elected at that time.

nated the third presentation of the annual program since the end of the war.

Leading the local students at the Saturday event were Mr. Fred Palmer, director of the band and orchestra from the Junior and the Senior High Schools and Miss Elizabeth Anderson, director of the Junior High Girls' Glee Club.

Coffin left at the Federal pointed out that the program was not being carried out for the purpose of a contest. No ratings were given and no places of honor were designated for any of the participating units. Comments and constructive criticisms were made by the judges and will be forwarded to the directors of the school groups.

More than 300 bands, individual musicians and glee clubs were auditioned during the morning in the halls of the Lawrence High School, the Boys Club of the Y.M.C.A., the auditorium of the Y.W.C.A. and the Oliver School.

Police overtook the first car on Washington St., and took the two occupants in the station when the second was unable to produce a license or registration. At the station the driver produced a license made out to William J. Costine of 99 Ferris St., Charlestown and an automobile registration issued to Agnes Costine of the same address. The second man identified himself as John H. Burgess of the Skyline Farms, Franklin, N. H. Investigation showed a long police record on Costine. The address of the New Hampshire man is being checked by the local authorities.

Chief Charles J. Harrold said the men be held on $2,500 bond at Woburn Court yesterday morning while the car is court-held until next week to give police opportunity to check on the two men.

His condition remains as immediate questions impossible, but Monday morning he was operated upon by Dr. Harry L. Benson and Dr. Richard Webster, who has an office on Beacon St., in Brookline. Dr. Webster is a plastic specialist.

Many calls were being received at the hospital as to Mr. Kelley's condition. His condition Wednesday was reported improved, but he will not be able to go outside for about two weeks and after leaving the hospital will have to spend several weeks in convalescence.

WINCHESTER RED AND BLACKS MEET 6-4 DEFEAT AT HANDS OF OLD WOBURN RIVALS

Boy Scout News

This regular weekly meeting held on Thursday evening, May 6th, was highlighted by outdoor drilling with Asst. Scoutmaster Fiore obtaining a young drummer with the Scouts marched around St. Mary's Campus and adjoining streets with Flags and uniforms.

Mr. Fiore who has been "champing at the bit" to get the boys out camping has made arrangements to take the Scouts to Camp Rankin early in June for an overnight, weekend trip. Camp Rankin is in Medford and what Scout is not familiar with it? Later on trips will undoubtedly be made to far distant places but this is ideal for starters.

Mr. Doucette, Scoutmaster took a few of the Scouts who are ready for their second class tests at the Board of Review to Camp Lane over the past weekend and the Scouts made an intresting trip of it. Scout Pearson made a beautiful fire, while Scouts Connolly, Mawn and Cullen discovered a birds nest with eggs in it. The Scouts also had the opportunity to show Mr. Doucette that they knew the use of the knife and hatchet and cooking. They prepared their meals on Scout Pearson's fire and climbed many trees and attempted a bit of tracking. The Scouts who made the trip were Don Cullen, John Pearson, Bob Thorne, Jim Mawn and John Connolly.

The Navaos have voted to change their patrol name to the "Flaming Arrow". Mr. George Thompson, Winchester District Commissioner was a welcome visitor and demonstrated artificial respiration to the boys. He gave Scoutmaster Doucette a hand conducting advancement tests with some of the boys who were doing Scouts' pace along Washington Street and at other times was hearing the boys on first aid or signaling.

Committeemen assisting the various patrols were Mr. Casy, Kinton, and Erhard. Present also for the Committee were Doucette and Fiore and Mr. Grant who has charge of finances. A lively "Skunk Tag" game was introduced by Mr. Thompson with Scouts Drohan Loftus, Taylor, Connolly emerging the winners. Scouts Loftus Peter McLaughlin and Leo Coughlin were the Scouts Pace boys who did their chores along Washington Street. Chief James E. Callahan of the Winchester Fire Department has accepted an invitation of the Committee to come and address the boys on Thursday evening May 27th on Firefighting and Safety which the boys are looking forward to.

Tomrrow marks the closing date of the Rotary-sponsored essay contest open to all Winchester Boy Scouts in which the local Rotarians will award two winning scouts two weeks vacation each at Camp Fellsland for the best 200 word essay Means To Me".

The Judges will name the writers of the winning essays on Thursday May 22. Essays are being submitted to the Fellsland Council headquarters on Border Rd.

University's Feature Bill

The adventures of a Norwegian family in San Francisco some 40 years ago form the basis for the gay screen offering, "I Remember Mama", which starts Sunday for four days at the University Theatre. Irene Dunne, as the hard-working mother about whom the action revolves, has as co-stars Barbara Bell Geddes, Oscar Homolka and Philip Barn. Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Edgar Bergen, Rudy Valle and Barbara O'Neill are featured. The picture is based upon the Broadway stage success adapted from the novel "Mama's Bank Account" by Kathryn Forbes.

"The March of Time-Crisis in Italy" and other short subjects complete the program.

"To The Victor" which starts Thursday, tells the story of a patriotic Frenchman attempting to deal ustly with returned traitors. It is adventurous, romatic and thoughtful in its underlying meaning and logically concluded, which is helped by the fact that much of the action was photographed in post-war Paris and Normandy. The cast is well chosen, with Dennis Morgan as an American soldier involved in the black market and Vivica Linfors as the distrought wife of a traitor.

"The Inside Story", an entertaining comedy-drama, is the companion film. The cast includes Marsha Hunt, William Lundigan and Charles Winniger.

CYO Jr. Diamond Squad Licks Intermediates 10-5

Last Sunday afternoon four of the St. Mary's C. Y. O. Intermediates playing the Juniors at L[illegible] Field preparatory to their respective scheduled games. Both teams will play in the newly formed Middlesex C. Y. O League which will mean that they will not have to make the long trips to Lowell the way they had to do in the basketball league. They will play teams from Melrose, Stoneham and Wakefield.

The Intermediates came up with a 10 to 5 victory and the discovery of another pitcher to help Captain Don Kenton in this department in the person of Dick Bucci who had 10 strikeouts to his credit. He showed a fine tricky curve ball. Juniors Goodrow, Russo and Rand divided the pitching going three innings each. Russo was unsteady on Goodrow got a bit of faulty support. Rand showed a fine repertoire curve that gave the Intermediates trouble.

Fred Patterson for the Intermediates, proved catching departure as well as hand. His pegs to second were fine while Dave Barry of the ones that were slated for the base stop. There were no homers but Juniors smothered all of the wild Riga smashed a triple and collected two walks and proved fast on the bases. Don Kenton got two hits and walked once. Williams got a single Jack Haggerty a double and Rogers a hit and a walk. Taylor who was loaned to the Intermediates for the afternoon got a fine single and squeezed home a run with a beautifully placed bunt.

For the Juniors, Jack Flaherty got a double to left while Powers came up with two hits and a walk. Di-Forio made one hit and received a walk. Bucci for the Intermediates made a couple of singles too. Crowley at first base Taylor at third and Kenton in Left Field all looked good. Next practice will be next Sunday at Leonard Field. The Lineup:

MISSION UNION

Miss Francis Van-Cleve Hitchcock, member of the Presbyterian Board of Missions in Columbia and head of the American School in Burma addressed the members of the Mission Union of the First Congregational Church at the May luncheon meeting of the Union last Tuesday at the church social hall. Miss Hitchcock, who has spent the past 12 years in Columbia with the Presbyterian Board of Missions, spoke on the subject, "Opening Doors to South America". She is the sister of Mrs. William C. Morse, Jr., of Winchester. The program was arranged by Mrs. Wellington L. Caldwell and Mrs. Marshall Symmes.

A second inning hey-day for the visiting Woburn High diamond squad hammered the local Red and Blacks down to a six to four loss at Leonard Field Wednesday afternoon. The game marked the seventh running victory for the Woburn boys.

Winchester's mound man, Jack Chisholm, fed his opponents right of their total of nine hits during he first three innings. The tanners bogged down a bit during he last six but the home teamers were unable to recover from the initial blow of four scoring tallies in the second.

Chisholm got back into form in the later stages of the contest and held the Webermites down to one additional hit which came in the ninth when Bob Garvey managed a single.

Three singles from Winchester's "Junie" Reardon, Sam Bellino and Chisholm paid off in the third with the first score for the locals. Woburn's Jimmy Leanos handed two walks to Cogan and Priest in the sixth when a single by Slack and an outfield fly chalked up two more runs for W.H.S. The fourth and final home score came with a single by Priest, two passed balls and a fly. The ninth slid by with noth-
